On behalf of the Harvest of Hope Foundation (HOH), it is my pleasure to present to you the HOH 2011 Annual Report.

This year HOH distributed over $71,000 in critical financial assistance to migrant farmworkers and families across the country. Other notable accomplishments include:

a) $25,000 was provided this year in scholarship aid to children of migrant farmworkers attending college.

b) More than 2,500 pairs of gently used donated shoes and sneakers were distributed by HOH to migrant farmworkers and families across the country.

c) Since its establishment in 1997 HOH has distributed more than $916,000 for medical services, car repairs due to breakdowns while traveling, bus tickets, rent, utilities, funeral expenses, food, clothing and educational scholarships.

How you can help migrant farmworkers and families!

1) Easy on-line one-time or reoccurring tax-deductible donations via credit cards or electronic checks can now be made at www.harvestofhope.net/eft. The drop-down menu allows you to select one of over fifty (50) different funds for migrants housed under HOH. Via regular mail, checks or money orders made out to the Harvest of Hope Foundation can be sent to my attention at PO Box 358025, Gainesville, Florida 32635.

2) The Foundation is accepting donations of high school and college textbooks in good condition for resale to raise funds. If you have textbooks in good condition to donate, please contact me at 352-262-5421 or at phil@harvestofhope.net.

3) We also seek donations of historical memorabilia, antiques and collectibles to sell including vinyl records from the 1950s to the 1980s.

4) Put HOH in your will and/or donate stock and other investments.

As you enjoy the holidays please remember the migrant farmworkers and families who work so diligently to harvest and produce the fruits and vegetables that we enjoy daily. They earn our support! And, a note of great appreciation to Tom Romero, Foundation Vice-President, for all his great work for HOH.

Sincerely,

Philip Kellerman, President
